YOUR HOME TOWNERS would like to congratulate Bill West, a newcomer in McKinney politics on his decisive election to the office as Mayor of the best town in the United States, Big McK. We know what problems are in the running of the office of Mayor inasmuch as our father had this job for 16 years. You can't run the office of Mayor by remote control and in the next two years Bill will have to give a lot of time away from his business. We want you to know, Bill, that Your Home Towners stand ready at any time to co-operate with you and the City Commission. Our papers stand for progress and unless we work together as a team we will not go forward.

P. S.—Bill, we would appreciate your personal interest in the transformation of the present non-usable coliseum into a usable auditorium. We need it so badly for a future progressive McKinney.

INASMUCH as the "Canal" section of the Trinity Authority Bill has been stricken from the bill, Your Home Towners are wondering what the proponents of the bill will have to say about that in McKinney. They claimed that we would save thousands of dollars on cheap freight rates and we believe that feature was a strong factor in the McKinney Chamber of Commerce and The Junior Chamber of Commerce endorsing the Bill.

We are going to recommend to Judge Button and his Commissioners Court to study this bill immediately because, gentlemen, the people of Collin County are going to have to pay a tax to the tune of 10c on the $100.00 valuation if the bill goes through in its present form. Likewise, Judge Button, we will be forced into an election with Dallas and Ft. Worth and they will out vote us. In other words the boys in Dallas don't want Collin County voters to vote in a local option election. Why, Judge Button? Also Judge Button in a news report from Houston, Mr. Belt, President of the Houston Chamber of Commerce, objected to a portion of the bill which gives the Authority the power over the State Board of Water Engineers, to allocate Trinity water. Judge Button it looks like your folks in Collin County are getting "City Slicked"—if you understand what we mean. Judge there is a "Nigger in the Woodpile." Somewhere.

WHILE YOUR HOME TOWNERS have been thinking and writing about the Trinity River Authority don't think for one minute that we haven't been thinking of the transformation of the present non-usable coliseum into a usable Auditorium. This is a must for McKinney and our future of McKinney. Yes, dear readers we are going to keep on and on until this project is completed that will bring people and money to McKinney and will be one of the best good-will builders for our community.

THE RECENT party given to the McKinney Fire Department by Your Home Towners was rained out but the eatin' wasn't. Here we want to thank the McKinney High School Band, The Jaycees and The American Legion for their part in the affair. You can always depend on these and other McKinney organization to do their part when called upon.

YOUR HOME TOWNERS friends, Tom and Bruce Allen, have one of the smartest and most intelligent dogs we have ever seem. Tom says the dog's name is "Seymore." Seems while Tom and Bruce were diggin a little "dirt" at the McKinney Country Club—this is real dirt for a lake dear readers—"Seymore" was constantly at their side and when called upon to retrieve such things as gloves, hats, iron pipes and the like, little "Seymore" would do the job and bring them back to Boss Tom—but Your Home Towners happened to be out to the Club and Boss Tom wanted to show Seymore off. Well we will not go into details as to the outcome of "Seymore's" intelligence. Boss Tom made the statement that "Seymore" had more sense than both of us combined, of which Your Home Towners remarked, do you think that is braggin' for "Seymore." Smart dog, this "Seymore."

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank all of our friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful during the illness and death of our mother. Kind words and deeds were deeply appreciated. God's love and blessings be with each one.

The Family of Mrs. J. H. Hall.
Mrs. J. H. Porterfield of Plano, was a business visitor in McKinney, Monday.

McKinney Firemen Honored On Thursday

The McKinney Fire Department was honored Thursday afternoon and night when Firemen's Appreciation Day was held here. At 4 o'clock the equipment of the department, was paraded through the business district after which it was returned to the City Hall and displayed for two hours. Many McKinney citizens called by the department to express their appreciation to our fire boys for their loyalty to the city. However, due to the inclement weather, and previous storm reports, the crowd was somewhat smaller than anticipated.

It has previously been planned for school children to visit the City Hall but the weather prevented their visit.

At 6 o'clock the Firemen and a few other guests were entertained with a dinner at the Jaycee Recreation Center, for which Perkins and Tom Perkins, publishers of the Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette, were hosts. A bounteous dinner of barbecued ham, and all the trimmings, was served. Those present were members of the McKinney Fire Department—paid and volunteer firemen; the Veterans Administration Hospital fire department, and Mayor R. F. Newsome and City Commissioners Chice McClure and George James.

A short program of impromptu talks was enjoyed with Mayor Newsome thanking the department and volunteer firemen for their unselfish service in ministering to the city. The service of the volunteer firemen is a savings of over $40,000 a year to the taxpayers of McKinney. Mayor Newsome also expressed his appreciation of the 100 percent cooperation of the City Commission with the firemen and stated he was sure the same would continue in the future.

Chief Walker Cockrell responded by thanking the City Commission for the same spirit of cooperation which has been given the department.

Tom W. Perkins Jr., one of the hosts for the enjoyable occasion, expressed his appreciation to both the City Commission and Fire Departments for their fine work together and for the invaluable service they have rendered McKinney and vicinity.

Scouts Will Exhibit Bird Houses In Spring Flower Show

Youth groups, Junior Garden Clubs and Scout groups are the Horticultural future of country. If we can introduce and stimulate in our youth an interest in the beauty of our land we'll have citizens of the future that will guarantee their preservation. Conserving our wild life, wild flowers, water supply and soil will be the future problem of our todays youth.

An interesting feature of the Wilja Largent Garden Flower Show on April 19th will be an exhibit of Bird Houses built by the McKinney Boy Scouts. This is an educational feature, teaching us now to protect our birds. Birds not only enhance a garden with song and color but are a real aid to any gardener and his fight against insects. Mrs. Clyde Ball is chairman of the Education and conservation division of the show.

The Cub Scouts are preparing dish gardens or terrariums for the Flower Show, learning which types of plants have the same habits and can live together. A dish garden is made in a container and features the title of "Living Desert." A terrarium is enclosed in a glass container and supplies its own moisture and humidity by control of evaporation of the moisture given off by the enclosed plants. Anyone can plant these dish gardens or terrariums but to make them live and then grow is another thing. Mrs. Claude Rayburn, Scout Executive of this district is directing the boys in the project. There are about 18 dens so the showing will be interesting. Mrs. Wilbur Thompson, Chairman of the Junior Division is ready to assist any of the groups that need direction, or her assistant, Mrs. Chas. Wyson and Mrs. Sewell Franklin.

Boys we'll be looking forward to the Garden Show April 19th at the First Methodist Church Education Building to see your Bird Houses and Dish Gardens.

Practically every school in Collin County was represented at a meeting of principals and superintendents held at Boyd High School auditorium Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. The meeting was called by County Supt. W. H. Moseley and Haida Pearce for the purpose of having the Salk Polio vaccine program explained.

Winnifred Taylor, sanitarian with the McKinney-Collin County Health Unit was assisted by Mrs. Pauline Dickson, Health unit nurse, and Mrs. Merle Thomas, city school nurse in outlining the program. Farmersville Lions Club Boosts Teams

The Lions Club of Farmersville, J. W. Talley, president, will boost their hometown baseball teams, the Ramblers, and the Little League, by selling season tickets, and otherwise helping the teams.

Talley said an appeal by Ramblers' manager Otis Wilder and county baseball commissioner Frank Davis would be heeded by the Lions, who will sell season tickets to help get the Ramblers out of debt and set them on their feet for another season.

"At the same time," Talley commented, "citizens who buy season tickets will be aiding the Little League organization, a Lions sponsored boys' baseball club designed to keep the youngsters busy during summer vacations."

Season tickets will be sold for $5 each. This ticket entitles the entire family to see all Ramblers and Little League games played at home. Included will be 15 Ramblers games and an unannounced number of Little League matches.

Meanwhile the Ramblers are getting set for one of their best seasons in several years. More than the allowed number of players faced Sunday's biting cold to make the initial workout at Ramblers Stadium here. Included were a number of schoolboy players from the high school, all of whom will be graduated and eligible to play this summer.

UNUSUAL . . . Seen About Town

By CAPT. ROY F. HALL

Big rush on the seed stores for garden seed Monday. It is an ill wind that blows nobody good, and it put a stop to my neighbors leaning over the fence and remarking, "Why, Roy, you ain't got no garden up yet." The big freeze cut us all down to size.

Talked to Willie Ware last week. Willie was an employee of the city for 47 years, before retiring a year or so ago. 47 years with the city and I don't know how long he has been a faithful attendance member at his church, longer than that, I am sure.

Bose Watson was in town from his fine little farm in the Alla vicinity. Bose makes a fine living from ten acres he said.

Tornado warnings were out from Fort Worth for this vicinity Monday until 4 p.m. Many called me, but the instruments here didn't show a waver. I'll let you know when they act up, but don't hesitate to call me when you are scared. I would call you, if the shoe were on the other foot.

The little girl walking around town Saturday with a white slipper on one foot, and a black one on the other attracted much attention. I framed an excuse to talk to her mother, and found that there was nothing wrong with her foot, she just liked to wear them that way. I have her name but her mother asked that it not be published, as she feared the child might be termed strange. Strange nothing! The five-year-old has character, and may be starting a fad.

George Williamson from Plano was telling a good one Saturday on the jockey yard, the source of lotsa news in this town. George said, just to prove a point, he put on old clothes, placed a sign on his breast reading, "Help the poor," and sat on Main Street at the corner of Akard in Dallas last week. From two o'clock until dark George said he took in $19.33. No wonder, he went on, that fortunes are often found in the hovels of beggars. George gave the money to the Salvation Army.

A man on the corner in front of the Ritz Theatre Saturday was asking if anyone could tell him where the Ritz was. When showed, he said "No, that can't be. I was raised in this town and the Ritz is on the northwest corner of the square. This is the southeast corner." Asked why he wanted the Ritz, he said he wanted to take the bus to the V. A. Hospital. Showed where the bus stop was, he maintained that the hospital was north of town, while the bus, standing there, was pointed south. Had to leave him.

Pretty good crowd in town Monday. Farmers who had corn up lost it all, and are undecided whether to replant or not. Many are thinking of planting to the grain sorghums, sesame, and a few, who have the allotment, cotton.

The old home owned by the McCain family on Waddill Street is being razed. This old house, built by Dick Burrage just before the First World War, was damaged by fire a few months ago, and is being dismantled. When built, it was one of the finest homes in the city. Only the best of material was used in its construction. Mr. Burrage left here and went to New Mexico. He is dead now.

Dislike to make any long-range forecast concerning the weather at this time of year. Anything can happen, and happen fast. Looks mild, though, for a few days. Don't believe we are due many severe storms this spring. Has not started off that way.

Shower Given At Lewisville For Bride

Mrs. John Poirier, the former Miss Janis Kerley, of Frisco, was honored with a shower Friday evening in the home of Mrs. Douglas Phillips at Lewisville with her mother, Mrs. John Burch, as co-hostess.

Miss Gladys Poirier presided at the bride's register.

The table was laid with a lace cloth over pink, decorated with bridal bouquets, and a miniature bride and groom. Green punch and angel squares, iced in pink were served.

The honoree received a lovely collection of gifts.

Highway Patrolman Everett Brandon, of Tyler, was visiting with McKinney friends Wednesday. Mr. Brandon and family formerly resided in McKinney and their host of friends are always pleased to see them on their visits "back home."

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman and sons, of Prosper, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hicks and family.

HYBRID GRAIN SORGHUMS MAKE DEBUT

Hybrid grain sorghums which are expected to increase yields 30 to 40 percent will be grown commercially in Texas this year. It marks the first such production anywhere in the world. Production during the 1955 growing season, however, will be limited to one-acre crossing plots on several selected farms. Foundation seed stocks will go to seed growers in 1956 and the new hybrids will be available for large scale planting in 1957.

Collin County will have a large hybrid sorghum variety test this year on the Killis Melton farm west of McKinney. The plot along with a replicated fertilizer test on sorghum will be under the supervision of Mr. C. C. Spence, Associate County Agricultural Agent who is located at Sherman.

Development of grain sorghum hybrids has been underway since 1927 at the Chillicothe substation of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station by J. Roy Quimby and J. C. Stephens. Dr. N. W. Kramer and R. E. Karper of the Lubbock substation also have contributed to the research. There is an oddity in the new hybrids. Due to the parentage of hybrids farmers will plant white seed but harvest red grain.

SODIUM BISULFATE... A CHEMICAL WHICH MAKES A BRIGHT LOOKING, SWEET SMELLING SILAGE

Sodium bisulfate, a chemical commonly used to retard spoilage in foods, is being added to grass silage to improve its quality. The chemical checks the bacterial fermentation of silage and results in a bright looking, sweet smelling product.

Texas dairymen who have tried the chemical report favorable results, says R. E. Burleson, extension dairy husbandman. Its use is becoming widespread in states where dairymen depend heavily upon silage for feed.

Success with sodium bisulfate is determined by even distribution throughout the forage and use of the proper amount, eight pounds to a ton of silage. Most farmers add the material from a hopper attached to a field harvester or blower on an upright silo, Burleson says.

Cost of treating will vary from $1 to $1.25 per ton.

Sodium bisulfate does not replace the use of molasses or ground grain, which make silage more palatable and nutritious. The chemical should not be used in combination with either molasses or grain, he adds.

LAWN FERTILIZATION

Ted Trew, Extension Agronomist at Texas A&M College, says applying fertilizer for your home lawn will put your grass in good shape for the hot, dry months ahead.

In general, Trew recommends a fertilizer with a 2-1-1 or 1-1-1 ratio applied to supply two pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet. Now if your lawn is on non-calcareous soil then lime should be added at the rate of 50-100 pounds of ground limestone per 1,000 square feet every two or three years.

In addition, Trew recommends adding one pound of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet every 30-40 days and water properly to keep the grass in a green and vigorous condition throughout the growing season.

Instead of light sprinklings every day or two, Trew says wait until the lawn shows a definite need for water then give it a thorough soaking.

If you wish further information on care of the lawn, see your county Extension agent and ask for Bulletin-203, "The Home Lawn."

Army Enlisting Men In New "Operation Gyroscope" To May 5

The U.S. Army will accept 70 young men each week through May 5 from the Fourth Army area for direct assignment to the 10th Infantry Division under the Army's new and revolutionary "Operation Gyroscope," which allows direct enlistments into Army units bound for overseas commands. The 10th Infantry Division, now stationed at Fort Riley, Kansas, is scheduled to replace the 1st Infantry Division in Wurzburg, Germany, this summer.

Technically known as the Unit Rotation Plan, the term "Gyroscope" has been applied to punctuate the "rotation with stability" phase used to describe the result of the plan. The plan calls for rotation of units up to division level to replace similar sized units currently stationed in overseas commands. The 10th Infantry Division is the first unit selected for "Gyroscope" type rotation with more units scheduled to follow in the near future.

Enlistments are open to men with or without prior military service provided they meet current enlistment standards. Those accepted for enlistment will be sent to join the 10th Infantry Division at Fort Riley for training before moving to Germany.

The move itself will be unique in that Regimental Combat Teams—comprising approximately one-third of a division—will exchange places between Fort Riley and Wurzburg, Germany, current home station of the Big Red One Division. In this manner, the Army will transfer a division in three phases with a Regimental Combat Team leaving every other month until the move is completed.

This plan should appeal particularly to young men interested in travel along with a good-paying job and all the benefits of belonging to the Regular Army as a career soldier. Those interested in such an opportunity are urged to contact Pfc. H. A. Sheets of the McKinney Post Office U.S. Army Recruiting Station, located at 1114 Commerce Street, Dallas, on Friday or phone EV-5347.

School Children Give To Cancer Fund In Memory, Mrs. Walden

The children of the Winnetka Elementary School in Dallas recently contributed $32 to the American Cancer Society in memory of the late Mrs. Leslie L. Walden, who passed away at her home, 1104 Erwin Street, this city. Mrs. Walden's son, Leslie L. Walden Jr. is principal at Winnetka school in Dallas.

The action of the students was taken after learning that Mrs. Walden had requested that any considerations in her behalf be in the form of a donation to the Cancer Society rather than flowers for her funeral.

The faculty, P-TA and Dad's Club of the school, as well as numerous other friends, also made similar contributions in her memory.

Annual Banquet Held By Jaycees

By FRANCES STOGDILL

Friday night could well have been "Jaycee Award Night" at the annual banquet and installation of new officers, held at the First Methodist Church. Many Certificates of Appreciation, the bronze plaque to outstanding Jaycee of the Year and oral ovals of appreciation were extended to many individuals or organizations for beneficiaries to one of McKinney's fastest growing, most energetic and active civic clubs.

The Jaycees and their guests were served a delectable spring dinner of baked ham, with all the accompaniments, at 7 o'clock in the spacious dining hall of the new Educational building of the church. Appropriate to the season, Easter decorations were used upon the long tables where nests of colorful eggs were placed at intervals. A graceful mound of pastel tinted snapdragons centered the speakers' table.

S-Sgt. John Maness, of Dallas, gave the invocation preceding the dinner hour, and the program opened with a trio of attractive young High School girls singing the popular tunes, "Sincerely," and "Ain't Misbehavin'." The voices of Misses Roberta Dobbs, Jeri Robinson and Mary Griffin blended harmoniously as they sang to the piano accompaniment of Miss Rubyrae Foster.

Jaycee President George C. Webb, in his clever and gracious manner, "emceed" the evening's entertaining, enlightening and inspiring program. Al Ruschhaupt was called upon to introduce the following special guests: Mrs. E. D. Drake and Mrs. Tom Dye, of Dallas; Mayor and Mrs. Fitzhugh Newsome, City Commissioner George W. James and Mrs. James; City Commissioner Choice McClure and Mrs. McClure, Judge and Mrs. W. C. Dowdy, Judge and Mrs. W. E. Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dungan, Mr. and Mrs. Halld Pearce, Mr. and Mrs. Murdock Cooper, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Witherspoon, Mr. and Mrs. James Cowan, Mrs. Virgil Stogdill, Mrs. Lester Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Wadsworth, Mr. and Mrs. Zip Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Satterwhite, Mrs. Maxine Allen, all of Irving, and the guest speakers.

Following this introduction the retiring officers were presented. Another of the evening's events was the presentation of certificates of appreciation to the benefactors of the Jaycees in putting over their many worthwhile projects last year, the most important of which was the Jaycee Recreation Center. Awards Chairman James Redden very ably handled this phase of the program which began with hearty applause to the president as leader of the Jaycees in "putting over" the Center.

Certificates were awarded to the following:

Texas Textile Mills for providing the grounds and newly constructed building at a very small lease fee, Frank W. Smith, manager, accepted the award.

Kiwanis Club, for contributing proceeds of their Pancake Breakfast, of between three and four hundred dollars, to the Center. President A. H. Witherspoon received the certificate.

Another certificate went to the Edelweiss Club, ladies literary group, for re-upholstering fixtures, and other interior decorations.

Willie Largent Garden Club for landscaping of the grounds. Mrs. James Cowan, president, very graciously accepted the certificate.

Lions Club for various benefits. President Murdock Cooper, accepting the award.

City of McKinney for street work and utilities at the Center.

In accepting the Certificate, Mayor Newsome responded by saying "We the City Commission feel better about giving to this fine organization that you in receiving. You are doing a wonderful work and the Jaycees have done so much to help the teen-agers of the city. You have stopped delinquency and are an agency to do good for the city."

The Daily Courier-Gazette and Weekly Democrat-Gazette, for liberal publicity, award received by Mrs. Stogdill.

In presenting the certificate to the schools, some of the many things were outlined including the seeding of grounds by the agriculture class; encouraging of students to use the Center, and thanks to the school teachers who helped with the school social events. This award was presented to Superintendent Pearce.

In climaxing this feature, the outstanding Jaycee of the year was announced. Al Ruschhaupt, Mr. Ruschhaupt, is one of the hardest-working most active members in the organization, having headed the trash can project—a big job within itself—as well as serve as secretary-treasurer of the Jaycee Center. He is also a member of the Board of Directors.

Jaycee Ruschhaupt is one of McKinney's most popular young business men, being proprietor of the McKinney Office Supply. Along with his civic and business endeavors, he is also quite active in church work, being superintendent of the First Methodist Sunday School. His honesty, integrity and pleasing personality are not only admired by his fellow Jaycees but by a host of friends throughout the city. Mr. and Mrs. Ruschhaupt are the parents of two attractive little daughters—Judy and Janet.

Mr. Ruschhaupt very modestly accepted the bronze plaque by saying "if all Jaycees enjoy the work as much as I do, we cannot help but have a good organization."

The next on program was Tom Dye, president of the Dallas Jaycees, who introduced the speaker Ed Drake as an outstanding layman in his church, active in the local government being County Democratic Chairman of Dallas County, and with a record as an outstanding civic worker, particularly his work as a Jaycee, of which he is past president.

The speaker opened his remarks with a story which began during World War II in 1945, relating personal instances, while he was on duty in the European Theater. Throughout his address he wove the story of a German lad who spent months of study and work in the United States, and his reactions to "the American Way of Life." The stories and illustrations all compared the independence and freedom of our country with others.

The speaker also emphasized the public responsibility of the Jaycees to their community and lauded the McKinney organization for such outstanding work the past year, alluding in particular to the Jaycee Center. In giving statistics of the clubs and memberships throughout the state and nation, he closed by commending Jaycees for their responsibility and contribution to their country and community.

State Vice President Arnold Barnes, of Richardson, was the installing officer who, in his charge, stated "these boys stepping down are leaving good sized shoes for you to fill." He called each officer to his feet, as he read the Jaycee Creed.

The new officers are:

President, Emory Davis.

First Vice-President, Pete Murphy.

Second Vice-President, John Blackwell.

Third Vice-President, J. D. Ellis.

Secretary, Wade Underwood.

Treasurer, Felix Smith.

State and National Director, J. B. Koonce.

Stingeree, Bill C. Christie.

Ex-officio, George Webb.

Directors are: Dwayne Howell, Ed Veigel, Dickie Horn, Monty Nicholas, Killis Melton, Charles Campbell, Jimmy Gant, Elmo King, Alex Orr and Bob Pressley.

Retiring officers are: George Webb, president; Al Ruschhaupt, first vice; Emory Davis, second vice; John Blackwell, third vice; Tommy Mockford, secretary; Felix Smith, treasurer; Dickie Horn, stingeree, Pete Murphy, state and national director and Ed Veigel, ex-officio.

President Webb made his farewell address in presenting the gavel to President Davis, and concluding the evening's festivities was presenting of gifts. Miss Barbara Skidmore, retiring office secretary, presented gifts for the office. Miss Gay Walker will be the new office secretary.

A gift of beautiful luggage to the president, from the organization, brought the annual banquet to a most successful close.

Juanita Litchford spent the week-end with Mary Stephens at Weston.

Lease On Jaycee Center Renewed Two More Years

President-elect Emory Davis and George Webb, retiring president, of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, were in Dallas Tuesday afternoon at which time they met with the Jaycee Foundation. A two-year extension on the lease and option for another year, of the Jaycee Recreation Center, were secured.

The Center was taken over by the Jaycees last July, since which they have continued to operate it. The building and grounds were constructed by the Jaycee Foundation, but playground equipment, and other improvements have been made by the Jaycees.

The Center has grown to be one of the most popular recreational spots in this vicinity, being used by all aged groups. The playground is equipped with all types of swings, slides, merry-go-round, and other toys of the kind for the enjoyment of the children. One of the best swimming pools in North Texas is an attraction during the heated season, and the club building itself is suitable for dancing and various types of indoor entertainment. A snack bar is conveniently located for serving refreshments.

The spacious grounds have lighted volleyball court, tennis court, and a baseball field is being built at this time. The Jaycee Foundation contributed $100 to Messrs. Davis and Webb which will be used for a basketball court.

The Jaycee Center is open the year round with special hours reserved for private parties and entertainments. The Jaycees again remind the public that the Center is "your recreational Center and you are invited to use it at all times."

Col. Baker Is Now Instructor At Bryan AFB

BRYAN AFB, Tex. — Col. Royal A. Baker, the slender (McKinney) Texan whose blazing guns and expert flying ability made him a triple ace (16 victories) in the North Korean skies, returned to his home state today to impart a little of his "know how" to fledgling jet pilots at this flying training base.

In Bryan to help celebrate Military Day at Texas A&M College, the colonel visited the base at the request of training officials here to give some "first hand" advice on jet flying and to show a new color film on a late model jet fighter.

As the young colonel spoke, his unimposing but quietly efficient and determined manner seemed to point up the truth of one of his opening statements. "It doesn't take a superman to fly a jet," he stated flatly, "because I'm just a plain 'ole' G. I. pilot."

"Push button warfare is still a long way in the future and we're going to need lots more good red-blooded American boys to fly our aircraft for a long time to come," he asserted as he introduced a short color film of the new F-102A delta wing fighter aircraft which the USAF is now using.

In referring to the new Convair-built F-102A he stated his opinion that it "stacked up" well in comparison to the Korean Conflict-tested F-86 Sabrejet, and he ventured to say that the USAF may replace F-86's with the newer plane as the 86's wear out.

When questioned, during a "question and answer" session with the jet students as to "how the F-86D compared to the Mig fighter," Colonel Baker opined that "it was better because for each F-86 that was shot down there were 14 Migs destroyed. Better American training was also a big factor, he said.

He quickly added, however, that "there is no reason to believe that the Russians aren't building better planes just as we are."

In comparing the Mig planes and their pilots to those of this country the McKinney pilot made several interesting observations.

Mesdames T. E. Hardaway, Rena Elfrt, Joe McKinney, J. L. Gossett, J. L. Bright and Nelle Jenkins were in Dallas Wednesday attending the North Texas Conference of Women's Society of Christian Service, held at the Highland Park Methodist Church. On Tuesday Mrs. Roy Roberts, Mrs. Reuben Ray and Mrs. Hardaway attended the conference.

George Roper Jr. Is Promoted Commander In U. S. Naval Reserve

McKinney and Collin County relatives and friends have received word of the promotion of George Roper Jr. to the rank of Commander in the U. S. Naval Reserve, effective July 1, 1954. He is now serving on active duty as executive officer of the USS Libra. He was originally commissioned an Ensign in 1941. He served on a destroyer, the USS McCalla for three years in the Pacific Theater of World War II, the McCalla having participated in the defense of Guadalcanal and the long move through the Solomon Islands. Later the ship operated with the Third and Fifth Fleets.

He was assigned to the attack transport USS George Clymer, and while executive officer, participated in operation crossroads, the Atom Bomb test at Bikini. He later was commanding officer of the USN Reserve Training Center at Bay City, Mich., and served in the office of the Chief of Naval Operations prior to reporting to the Libra as executive officer. The Libra has operated in the Mediterranean with the fleet and in amphibious operations with the Atlantic Fleet.

Commander Roper, who now calls McKinney his home, was born in Rosebud, Texas. He received his preliminary education in Ashland, Ky., and attended the University of Texas and George Washington University at Washington, D. C. His formal Naval training was at the USNR Midshipman School, Abbot Hall, Northwestern University, Chicago, Ill., while in the World War II V-7 officer candidate program.

In 1947 Commander Roper married Miss Polly Snapp, of McKinney, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Snapp, West Louisiana Street, and the late Mr. Snapp. They have a daughter, Lillian Melissa Roper, 6-years old. He is the son of George Roper, of Plano, and Mrs. Robina G. Roper of Ashland, Ky.

Local Blue Bird And Camp Fire Groups To Enter Flower Show

There is a well known campfire slogan is regarded to earning the honor beads; "The only activity in which you cannot earn an honor bead is breathing," so it was very natural to find a large participation of Blue Birds and Campfire Girls in the Flower Show last year. In the April 19th Garden Club Show we are anticipating an even larger number of entries in the Junior Division.

A Campfire Honor bead is a merit of award, an accomplishment, and a learning experience. There are 31 different honor beads that a campfire girl may earn under the Gardening Section of the Home Craft Honors. One of the honors is to enter in a Flower Show an exhibit for your garden. The Willa Largent Garden Club members are sending a club member to each Blue Bird and Campfire group to assist them in their entries and give them some basic fundamentals for making an arrangement. Mrs. Sewell Franklin, Clyde Ball, Wm. Benton, Jr., and S. B. Gustin three of the club members are group leaders and we expect these groups of entries to be well versed and hard to beat in the exhibit.

Mrs. Chas. Wyssong, Ben McReynolds, J. B. Merriman and Pat Clark will assist other groups.

The Blue Bird girls will have the appealing title "Story Land" to incorporate into their floral arrangements and the campfire girls with the title "Make Believe" will find unlimited horizons in which to adventure. Mrs. Wilbur Thompson is chairman of the Junior Division and Mrs. W. W. Ball, the Campfire Director, will assist with the entries at the Flower Show, April 19, at the First Methodist Church Educational Building. No admission will be charged but donations will be accepted.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur West of Monroe, La., were week-end guests of his mother, Mrs. T. J. Townsend, and sister, Miss Jeannette Townsend, in this city. Mr. West attended the homecoming at Princeton Saturday evening to hear Dr. J. L. Highsaw speak. Mr. West was one of Dr. Highsaw's first pupils when he began teaching at Clearlake, this county.

There were 1,500 registered when the convention was held at Texas State College for Women, in Denton on March 24, 15 and 26. The Denton High School was host for the meeting.

On May 3 the local High School band will give their annual concert at Boyd High School.

Some of the contests in which they will participate this Spring include the Solo and Ensemble event on April 30, and the Spring band contest of Region 10 in Denton on May 7. Climaxing the busy season will be the Senior band entertainment scheduled for May 12.

WAC Offers Direct Commissions To Women Graduates

Direct commissions in the Women's Army Corps are now being offered to qualified young women upon graduation from college according to Lieutenant General I. D. White, Fourth Army Commander.

The Army each year has requirements for a small number of carefully selected young women to receive direct commissions as Second Lieutenants in the United States Army. To qualify, applicants must be 21-27 years of age and must possess above average mental, physical character qualifications. Graduates aged 28-33 who have the same qualifications plus career experience in a civilian field may receive direct commission as First Lieutenants.

Opportunities for direct commissions will be explained by two WAC officers from Texas who are currently visiting college campuses throughout Texas. They are Major Mary G. McDonald of Tyler, Texas and 1st Lieutenant Shirley H. Heinz of Houston, Texas. Both are graduates of Rice Institute and Major McDonald also holds a law degree from the University of Texas.

Further information for applicants can be gained by writing direct to the WAC Staff Advisor, Headquarters Fourth Army, Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

St. Matthew Passion To Be Presented At Dallas Church Easter

Climaxing Easter Sunday, First Methodist Church choir and orchestra of Dallas, will perform the St. Matthew Passion by Johann Sebastian Bach. The presentation will begin at seven o'clock in the sanctuary of the church.

Considered the greatest of all sacred music the performance requires the use of five choirs, two orchestras, piano, organ, seven soloists and narrator.

The soloists will include Juanita Teal, winner of the Dealey Award and one of the most promising contraltos in the Southwest. Mr. James Berry returning to sing the role of Jesus and other bass solos. Mr. Berry is known throughout the nation as one of the finest oratorio soloists. Also returning will be John Jones, possessing one of the best lyrical tenor voices in this area. Soprano soloists will be Mrs. Ralph Shannon, Mrs. Hal Maxwell, and Phyllis Nelson—all members of the Chancel Choir and accomplished soloists in their own right.

Bach wrote the St. Matthew Passion during the year 1729 when he was 44 years old for the Good Friday service of St. Thomas' Lutheran Church of Leipzig, Germany. He continued to perform the work until his death in 1750. Musical historians say that no work of Bach's received the care and deep consecration that went into this work. In all it took him eleven years to perfect.

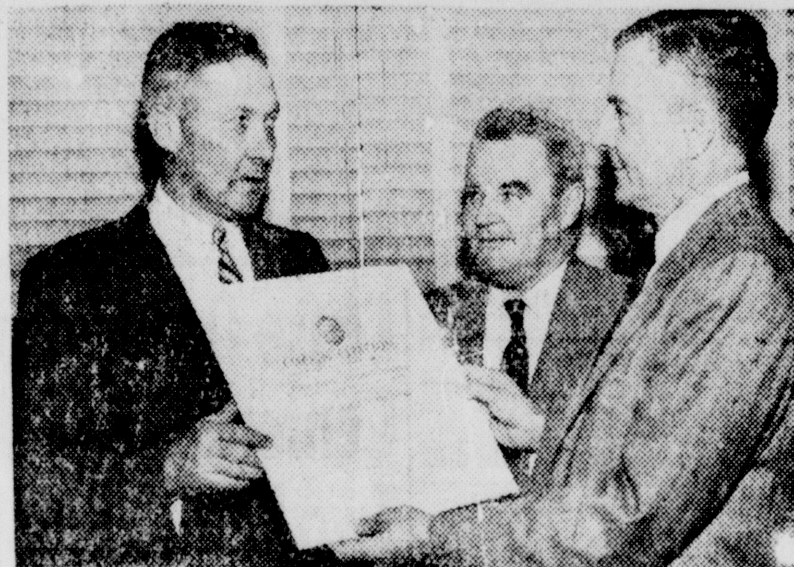

When one asks why it is considered the greatest of all sacred music the answer need not be more than that Bach was the greatest of all composers and into this work he poured his deepest devotion.

The public is invited to attend this performance which will begin at 7 o'clock Easter Sunday Evening.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Tucker, at Cottage Hill, were Bryan Tucker and family of Irving; Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Dickerson and son, of Houston; Mrs. L. W. Dickerson, of Weston; Mrs. Frank Moseley and son, and Mrs. Prebble Lowrey and daughter, Carol, of Alla.

Mr. and Mrs. Ovid Alexander and son, Norris, of Allen, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Alexander, and son.

Gas Dryer Performs Miracles In Spring Cleaning Jobs

A spring-fresh sprucing-up of your drapes, without laundering, dry cleaning or airing on the clothesline when sun and wind may change them! Does that sound too good to be true?

Not if you have a gas clothes dryer, that performs what seems to be a miracle in just about 10 minutes, noted home authorities say.

Start by giving your drapes a thorough vacuuming before taking them down. Use the round-brush attachment to get between the folds and pinch pleats on top where dust generally clings, and work downward.

When the draperies are dust-free fold, place in the gas clothes dryer and set control for 10 minutes of low heat. The circulation of warm air, gently forced through the fibers, will remove wrinkles and give the drapes a fresh, clean look again. A vigorous shake when you take them out, and they'll be ready to hang.

The same treatment works equally well on furniture covers and small rugs.

Million-Dollar Gas Range Sale To Be Conducted April, May

A million dollar spring range sale campaign for gas appliance dealers throughout Lone Star Gas Company's operating territory in Texas will be conducted during the months of April and May. Homemakers will see one of the largest over-all displays of modern gas ranges ever assembled in the Southwest.

Two-month promotion will feature the many new and ingenious improvements in modern automatic gas cooking equipment, such as "cool" ignition system, foldaway gas burners, timer controls for top-of-the-stove and oven cooking, the midjet 20-inch gas ranges with full ovens and regular size burners. One manufacturer has incorporated into his range an automatic oven "signalite," the reci-file and the "world fastest, yet coolest, 'hypo-jet' pilots" and a "precooled" high vent that keeps the homemaker "25 per cent cooler when she cooks."

These and numerous other features, along with the trend toward the "all-purpose" ranges produce a new freedom in gas cooking for today's homemaker. Once the householder tended to fill valuable kitchen storage space with griddles, deep-fat fryers, roasters and other auxiliary cooking devices. This is no longer necessary, because automatic gas ranges are now performing all these features.

Monday, March 28, was "D day" over Lone Star's territory. This slogan refers to "Dealer Day" on which Lone Star Gas Company managers held informal meetings with gas range dealers in their respective communities. Purpose of these special meetings was to go over the "spring range campaign" and to acquaint them with the promotional kit Lone Star is making available for use in their individual dealer sales campaign.

Lone Star's home economists will sponsor early morning meeting in dealer stores where ranges are connected to gas, for the purpose of creating employee interest in the campaign. Coffee and other refreshments will be served. A sales, salted range demonstration about 20 minutes long will be conducted for the dealer personnel.

Floor demonstrations for gas prospects will be given. Each prospect attending a demonstration will register and state who is the dealer organization gave the invitation to attend. The dealer employee with the most prospective customers attending will receive a major food prize.

Each person registering will be

Capt. Roy Hall Expresses Thanks

Wasn't that a fine turn-out of voters in the city election? Too bad we could not have had a few more candidates though, so that the people could have more completely expressed their preferences. I wish to express my thanks for those who voted for me as commissioner, and also those who saw fit not to. Had I wanted the place, instead of merely wishing to furnish our citizens a wider choice of candidates, I would have made a campaign. As I take an active interest in city affairs, I thought it proper to offer my services in the capacity of commissioner if the voters wanted me. They didn't, and I am grateful. Thanks again for the fine vote, and rest assured that I shall continue to work for the interests of the people of McKinney.
